An Introductory Finding List

This, the first page in our Catalogue, is devoted to a list of departments and sections in those departments, so that the purchaser may easily and quickly refer to the class of goods in which he is interested. In many instances the department or section of a department will be a sufficient guide in locating the item or items which you wish to order. Where the information is not sufficient, we refer the customer to the COMPLETE INDEX at the back of this Catalogue, by the help of which he can very readily find just the book, Bible, or article for which he is searching. Should it happen, however, that both of these guides fail to disclose what is wanted, do not fail to write at once to our Special Inquiry Department.

A Little Chat With Our Customers

Small Beginnings

When the American Baptist Publication Society was organized in 1824, it began doing a small mail order business with a hat for its stock-room and a slip of paper for its catalogue. In eighty-three years it has developed a business of over three-fourths of a million dollars annually. In its printing-house last year over 50,000,000 copies of periodicals were issued and thousands of bound books were made.

Now a Great Publishing and Bookselling Business

Up-to-Date Mail Order Service

Besides its great publishing business the Society has a large retail store in connection with its headquarters in Philadelphia; Branch House stores at Boston, New York, Chicago, St. Louis, Atlanta, and Dallas. All of these houses are equipped with thoroughly up-to-date retail and mail order departments where every important book, every new style of Bible, and all new and novel Church and Sunday-school requisites can be purchased. For out-of-town customers who cannot visit these stores we have prepared this price list.

Experience the Great Teacher

The Most Complete Catalogue Made

This catalogue embodies the results of eighty-four years of experience in general bookselling and the making of material for all departments of church activity. It is safe to say that there is no catalogue issued by any reliable publishing house which is so complete in every particular as this which we now offer for your assistance. You will find it a real buyers' guide worthy of careful reading and keeping for constant reference.

Consult the Index

The arrangement and classification together with the Introductory Finding List and the Complete Index make it easy to find what you want.

Gifts for the Book-lover

For those who wish to purchase gifts there is a book for every possible class of readers in the department devoted to books, pages 122 to 164.

Bibles, 25 cents to $20.00

In the Bible Department, pages 102 to 120, the Bible student will find over 500 editions of the Scriptures which will meet his requirements in every particular.

Holiday Hints

In the department of Holiday Goods we offer a wealth of suggestions for seekers of remembrances for friends, gifts for children, and material for Christmas celebrations.

Everything for Church Workers

In the Sunday-school and Church Supply Department, page 1 to 100, the Pastor, Superintendent, Teacher, and church worker of whatever sort, will find a host of helpful and interesting items.

Goods not in Catalogue

It would be impossible for any house to issue a catalogue listing all the books and church supplies published. We offer in this catalogue the most desirable—those which we know will meet the wants of the average buyer. We sell all books and requisites, whether advertised in our catalogue or not. If you want goods not found here, include them in your order and we will supply them.

Follow Instructions

After you have selected what you want, use the order blank in the back of the catalogue for sending the order to us. You will find our address on this blank, as well as on the cover of this catalogue. If you are in a great hurry for your goods, put a special delivery stamp on your letter.

Write Your Name and Address Plainly

Give page of catalogue where the goods ordered are described. Be careful to read and figure our prices right, so you will send the right amount of money. Many orders contain too much or too little money. Foot up the prices and write down the total, so that if there is any mistake we can see where it is.

Read Carefully

After you have written your order, look it over carefully to see that it is all right, and that you have not omitted anything.

Order Early at Holiday Time

Order early, particularly during November and December. Not only is our shipping department crowded during the Holiday season, but the mails and express companies are also. Keep a copy of your order. When goods arrive you can then check off and see that you have received all your order. If part or all of goods should be lost in transportation, you can then tell us what is missing.

Register Your Packages

By sending eight cents extra (over and above postage) you can have packages registered (if not over four pounds in weight); if more than one package (not over four pounds each), then eight cents extra for each package. Some single books weigh over four pounds, and on such books the registry fee is only eight cents, whatever their weight.

Shipping Instructions

Not Responsible for Goods Lost in Mail

For goods sent by express we obtain receipts, and the companies are responsible in case of loss. But we will not be responsible for goods lost in the mails. To all the principal points in this country we can send packages of books by express at mail rates if the charges are prepaid. These rates we gladly secure for our regular customers.

When you fail to state how you want goods sent, they will be forwarded by express, if weight of shipment is less than fifty pounds; if over fifty pounds, by freight. It is cheaper to make large orders and have them sent by freight. Books and printed matter can be sent by express at the rate of one cent for each two ounces or fraction thereof (postage rates) when charges are prepaid (not otherwise).

Insure Your Packages

Until further notice we will insure mail or express packages, if we are so instructed, at the rate of 5 cents for each package valued at $5.00 or under, 10 cents for each package valued at between $5.00 and $10.00, etc.—that is, 5 cents for each $5.00 or fraction thereof in value.

In case of loss, we will duplicate the insured package, or refund money upon application. If you want your packages insured—that is, if you want us to assume all of the risk of possible loss in transportation—be sure to write the word "insure" at bottom of order, and enclose insurance fee in addition to your remittance for goods.

How to Remit

To secure the safe carrying of money by mail, use Post-office Money Order, Express Money Order, or Bank Draft (local checks not accepted). Money sent in any of these ways cannot be lost. Registered letters may be used, but are not as safe as Money Orders or Drafts. Make Money Orders and Drafts payable to American Baptist Publication Society. Stamps will be accepted for small amounts. Always give your Post-office address in full, and state the amount of your remittance.

The Right Prices

Prices in this catalogue with few exceptions are net—in most instances being far less than publishers' rates. Books published at net prices, unless otherwise stated, are sent postpaid; where postage is charged extra the exact amount is given.

Unless otherwise stated, express charges or postage will be extra. Some of the prices in this catalogue include postage; in other instances the amount of extra postage is given.

Reasons for Delay

Before you write us that goods ordered have not reached you: First. Remember just when you sent your order, and consider whether you have allowed a reasonable length of time for the goods to reach you.

Second. Inquire both at post-office and express office. Packages may be too large for postman to deliver, or a part or all of your order may have been sent by express. When you inquire for packages, remember that it is possible that we may have spelled your name incorrectly, or may have used the wrong initials.

Always Give Name of Party Signing Order When Sending in a Complaint

Third. In writing us, if you have received only part of the goods you ordered, say just what goods you failed to receive, giving quantity of each and full description. If you have not received any of the goods you ordered, tell us just what it was you ordered, giving quantity, catalogue page, amount of money sent, etc.

Errors Will Occur

We use our utmost endeavors to prevent the making of mistakes, yet should it happen that your order is not filled according to your instructions, or the goods are not received in a reasonable time, notify us at once and we will correct the error without delay. We make special request that when serious cause for complaint arises you address a personal letter to the manager.

The Return of Goods

When for any reason you wish to return any goods bought from us, please observe the following rules:

1. Wrap package carefully and securely, so that goods will not be damaged in transit. Do not put any writing in package.

2. Address package American Baptist Publication Society, adding 1701-1703 Chestnut Street, if you are dealing with the Parent House, or the street number of the Branch House with which you are doing business.

3. Write on corner of package the word "From," followed by your name and address.

4. In all cases send package by mail postpaid, unless where you find it cheaper to send by express prepaid. We send goods prepaid unless otherwise stated in the catalogue, and do not receive returned packages if not prepaid. Where the fault is ours we refund return charges.

5. Write immediately, saying what you have returned, and what you wish us to do, whether to return money paid or send other goods. If the goods were wrong in any way, please explain.

NOTE.—Where goods are bulky, and cost of returning is likely to be considerable, write us before sending back.

We Invite Suggestions

The phrase, "Don't knock, but boost," applies as much to a denominational publishing house as to a secular business institution. You should be just as much interested as we are to "see us grow." Promote the interests of your own house by helpful, kindly co-operation. You will find a ready response to all reasonable suggestions.

Special Requests

We make the following special requests: In dating your letter please be particular to mention the name of the State as well as the town, as there are many towns of the same name in different States.

If our correspondent is a clergyman, please put "Rev." before the signature. If a lady, prefix "Miss" or "Mrs." If the writer is not a clergyman, please let us know the denominational or other official connection. If connected with Sunday-school, state whether superintendent or teacher, as this information is very frequently a guide to us in our replies.

When Visiting Our City

We extend to you a cordial invitation to make your headquarters at our offices, which are conveniently located in the center of the business district.

We desire the pleasure of making your personal acquaintance. The free use of our desks, stationery, city directories, telephones, maps of the city, and messenger service is at your disposal.

Conclusion

We wish to express our appreciation of the generous patronage given us by our constituency. Every effort is being made to perfect our service. You can write us with the assurance that you will receive prompt and accurate information on any subject pertaining to Books, Bibles, and Church or Sunday-school work. Let us be of service to you.

Material for Sunday School Instruction

1. BAPTIST SUNDAY SCHOOL BUILDERS

The best aids for superintendents and teachers.

The best lesson helps for each grade.

The best illustrated papers for each department.

The admirable series of periodicals issued by the American Baptist Publication Society are so well known that an extended statement as to their value is not necessary. The over fifty million copies circulated last year speak more effectually than volumes of commendation. All that is necessary is to guide you in your choice by mentioning the several issues and their adaptability to the scholars for which each is intended. If there is one word that characterizes our periodicals more than another it is the word "practical." Our "Helps" are Sunday school builders. Any who have not seen our publications will be convinced of their merit and worth by comparing them with others of similar character and worth. We believe them fully equal to any, and superior to most issues for the Sunday-school.

Send for specimen copies without delay, which will be mailed to you absolutely free of cost.

WEEKLY ISSUES

"Our Baptist Spiritual Forebears" formed a striking feature of 1908. "Science for Young People," by Doctor Houghton, will be an attractive and helpful feature during 1909.

"Young People" should be in the hands of all young Baptists, as it will not only be attractive in a literary and mechanical way but will stand squarely and all the time for Baptist principles. The Advanced Home Department Quarterly. This quarterly meets the needs of the younger members of the Home Department. It is the same size as the regular "Advanced," with matter especially adapted to home pupils. Price, the same as for the "Advanced."

The Junior Quarterly. Mrs. M. G. Kennedy, Editor. Illustrated. Prepared with special reference to the junior pupils, who need something different from those in the grade above them. It touches this class on all sides, and is adapted to stimulate study and develop the understanding. Schools cannot afford to be without a supply of this excellent quarterly. Price, single copies, 10 cents a year. In clubs, 2 cents a copy for one quarter; 7½ cents a copy for one year.

Primary Quarterly. Mrs. Vernon S. Phillips, Editor. Illustrated. If your school is properly graded there will be a large class of bright and happy children ready for this quarterly visitor. It is published solely for the scholars who have graduated from the monosyllable class. You will often hear them boast of their greatness. Just beginning to understand what they read, they naturally "know it all." It is an interesting class and requires the very best material. Price, single copy, 10 cents for one year; in quantities, 7½ cents each for one year; 2 cents each for one quarter.

Primary Quarterly. Teachers' Edition. Mrs. Vernon S. Phillips, Editor. Illustrated. This will be a new issue, commencing with January, 1909. It will include the lesson matter provided in the "Primary Quarterly" prepared for pupils. Its special purpose will be to furnish aid to teachers. It will have numerous valuable features, which cannot now be enumerated. No pains nor expense will be spared to make this an invaluable help to primary teachers. The primary department of The Baptist Teacher will either be omitted or wholly changed. Price announced later.

Beginnners' Lessons Quarterly. (New). Mrs. Vernon S. Phillips, Editor. Illustrated. This will contain the Beginners' Lessons formerly furnished in The Baptist Teacher, revised and adapted to the new Elementary International course. Price announced later.

PICTURE LESSONS

Picture Lessons. Gene Howard, Editor. In colors. For primary classes. On one side is given a picture in colors, the lesson subject and text, and the Golden Text, a reduction from the large wall roll "Bible Lessons." On the reverse side a short story of the lesson, a "memory thought," an appropriate poetical verse, and three questions with answers. Sold in sets of five and its multiples. Price, single sets, 14 cents for one year; in quantities, 10 cents each for one year; 2½ cents each for one quarter.

Our Story Quarterly. Illustrated. This attractive issue is well entitled "A Little Help for Very Little People." It addresses itself to the youngest readers in words they can understand, as a rule. It does not cover every point in every lesson but deals with great facts and truths in a winsome way, frequently suggesting questions or points to be solved by father or mother or teacher. It finds welcome in many thousands of homes. The provision made for the beginners by this quarterly is highly appreciated. Price, 7 cents a year; in packages of five or more to one address, 4 cents each for one year; 1¼ cents each for one quarter.

☞ A Complete Index will be found at the back of this catalogue

Beginners' Lesson Pictures. Mrs. Vernon S. Phillips, Editor. To be used in connection with the Beginners' Lessons. A handsome series of cards 5½ x 8 inches in size, printed in phototype ink upon India-tint coated paper. Issued quarterly. Price, 6 cents a quarter; 24 cents a year, postpaid.

Bible Lesson Pictures. Large chromo pictures in the form of a wall roll, twelve in number, each illustrating a lesson. On the cover there is a lesson map.

With each set of pictures, we enclose an eight-page illustrated paper containing explanatory notes. These pictures may be used in conjunction with the Picture Lessons. In many schools the lesson is taught from the large pictures, and, at the close of the service, each child receives a card containing the same picture in miniature. Many schools use two sets of pictures, one for the main school, another for the primary department. You cannot afford to be without at least one set. Size, 26 x 37 inches. Price, $3.00 per set for one year; 75 cents per set for one quarter.

LESSON LEAFLETS

We publish three grades of "Lesson Leaflets," with these titles: "Bible Lessons" for Advanced Scholars; "Junior Lessons" for Junior Scholars; "Primary Lessons" for Primary Scholars. As the lessons in the leaflets are the same as those contained in the three quarterlies mentioned above, you will readily determine their value. They may be justly called "disciplinarians," being used principally as a "stick" for the scholars who are indifferent, careless, or who wilfully destroy their quarterlies. The loss of a quarterly means the substitution of a leaflet, which, to say the least, is distasteful. Then again, it is a good plan to always keep a few on hand for visitors, etc. Because of the small price of these leaflets, we are never asked to send less than five copies. Price, in quantities, 4 cents each for one year; 1 cent each for one quarter.

Outside Periodicals

Periodicals published by other houses will be cheerfully ordered for you. In ordering these, however, please be particular to give the correct name of the publication you wish, and state clearly when your subscription is to begin and the length of time it is to be continued. To avoid delay and disappointment, be sure to send the required remittance, as our terms are cash with each order.

Lesson Pictures for Older Scholars. These are furnished in response to an increasing demand for a pictorial aid in the teaching of older pupils. They meet with great favor in many classes. Price, 10 cents a set for one quarter, in any quantity.

Special

To newly organized schools, and schools which have never used our periodicals, we offer six months' subscription for the price of three months. Please remember, however, that Bible Lesson Pictures, Picture Lessons, and Beginners' Lesson Pictures are not included in this offer.

We take subscriptions for all magazines and newspapers, both domestic and foreign. See our special club offers in the Department of Holiday Goods.

2. BIBLE STUDIES FOR ADULT AND OTHER CLASSES

Bible Studies for Adult Classes

The American Baptist Publication Society is in thorough sympathy with the new interest in the Adult Bible-class Movement. It is especially interested in Bible studies for these classes. For those who use the International Lessons we publish "The Adult Class Monthly," which is second to none in this class of lesson studies. There seems to be a growing feeling among adult Bible-class workers and teachers that there should be an enlarged and more varied class of studies than is afforded by the International Lessons. In response to this feeling, therefore, we are offering the adult Bible-class public a series of Bible studies, called "Bible Studies for Adult Classes." There are twelve different studies in the series. Others will be added from time to time as the workers among the adult classes demand. These studies are published in book form, and range in price from 20 cents to $1.00. The books are as follows:

Studies in Old Testament History. Philip A. Nordell, D. D. Price, paper, 20 cents net, postpaid.

Thirty lessons on Old Testament history as follows: "The Creation to the Call of Abraham," "The Call of Abraham to the Exodus," "The Exodus to Conquest of Canaan," "Conquest of Canaan to Babylonian Exile," "Fall of Jerusalem to close of Old Testament Revelation."

Studies in the Life of Christ. Philip A. Nordell, D. D. Price, paper, 20 cents postpaid.

Forty lessons on the personal presence of Christ and his teaching on the most important matters of religion.

Studies in the Apostolic Age. Philip A. Nordell, D. D. Price, paper, 20 cents net, postpaid.

Thirty lessons on the early history of the church, as given in the book of Acts, and its doctrines, as given in the Epistles.

The Legal Books of the Old Testament. A. J. Rowland, D. D., LL. D. Price, 35 cents net, postpaid.

A general and specific study of the Pentateuch, including also an introduction to the book of Joshua.

The Historical Books of the Old Testament. Prof. Barnard C. Taylor, D.D. Price, 35 cents net, postpaid.

Sixteen studies, giving an introduction to the historical setting of these books, and also a survey of the historical development of the Hebrew people down to and after the exile.

The Prophetical Books of the Old Testament. John B. Gough Pidge, D. D. Price, 35 cents net, postpaid.

Doctor Pidge has given a clear and masterly statement of these most interesting books of the Old Testament. The work can be easily covered in a quarter, and fortunate indeed is the class that has wisdom enough to take up the study.

☞ A Complete Index will be found at the back of this catalogue

The Constructive Life of Christ. Burton and Mathews. Price, 85 cents net, postpaid.

This is one of the constructive studies of the University of Chicago Press. It is the best life of Christ published for Bible-class study. The class can well spend six months to a year in making a study of the life of Christ as given and suggested by this masterly work.

Handbook of the Life of Paul. Prof. Ernest D. Burton, D. D. Price, 50 cents net, postpaid.

Another one of the constructive studies. Next to Jesus stands Paul in the Christian religion. The study of the outline of his life and his epistles as given in this book will be an inspiration to any class that takes it up.

Studies in the Gospel According to Mark. Prof. Ernest D. Burton, D. D. Price, 85 cents net, postpaid.

It is constantly urged upon classes to study the Bible by books. This will give a sample of this method of Bible study. As such we commend it to adult Bible classes.

The Young Christian and His Lord. J. A. Kirtley, D. D. Price, 60 cents net, postpaid.

A study of twenty-six special days in the life of our Lord, forming thus twenty-six lessons, or six months of Sunday school Sundays. This book is made up of the Christian Culture Course of the B. Y. P. U. A. given several years ago. It is well worth the study of our adult classes.

The Development of Doctrine in the Epistles. C. R. Henderson, D. D., Ph. D. Price, 35 cents net, postpaid.

For those who wish to study the rise of Christian doctrine as given to us in the epistles of the New Testament this book will furnish an excellent guide. Any effort on the part of our Bible classes to get an orderly view of biblical teaching from a historical point of view is to be commended to-day.

A Study in Soul Winning. Rufus W. Weaver, Ph. D. Price, 50 cents net, postpaid.

Doctor Weaver gives an outline in his little book of the methods of soul-winning as found in the New Testament, together with a study of conversion and the faculties of the soul to be used in soul-winning work. As personal work is one of the special aims of the adult class, this book will be helpful to such classes.

Important Notice to Adult Classes. The above studies furnish a variety of valuable work for adult classes, whether made up of men or women. Where it is requested, any class taking up one of these studies will be furnished with suggestions to the teacher, and also suggestions for study for different members of the class. These suggestions will be printed and sent along with the order for the study taken up. The class will then be enrolled under our Teacher-Training Department, which stands ready to answer any personal letters from the teacher or any other officers of the class with reference to the particular study being pursued.

Orders may be sent for these books to any of the houses of the Publication Society, but letters asking for information about the studies, etc., should be sent to the Superintendent of Teacher-Training Work, Rev. H. T. Musselman, 1701-1703 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

It is scarcely too much to say that the life of the church is bound up with that of the school. It is with the ministry of this that this work concerns itself. Giving a historic sketch of its institution and development, he dwells very extensively with the relation of the ministry to the school, while the closing chapter takes a rapid glance at it as related to the twentieth century. The book is packed full of that which will make it essential to every Sunday school worker.

Pictures on the International Sunday School Lessons. The use of pictures in teaching has passed from the experimental stage. It is a fixed principle in teaching that the attention of the child can be more readily arrested by the use of pictures than by any other means. Even the majority of grown-ups will look at the pictures in periodicals and scarcely do more than glance over the reading matter. Hold before an audience a symbol or picture, and instantly you have their eyes as well as their ears, and they begin to form some opinion regarding the thing you are trying to present. Instantly ideas flash across the minds of the onlookers as they drink in the beauty of a Hofmann's Head of Christ, or recall the sad story in connection with Da Vinci's "The Last Supper." The type of pictures and their selection is of supreme importance, for one of the greatest mistakes we can make is to select pictures ill adapted to a particular age or story. Some selections of pictures are positively harmful and injurious. Pictures that are concrete or simple are better for children than those which are mystical or abstract. The pictures that fascinate the small child are those that show action. Pictures such as "Jesus Blessing the Little Children," "The Healing of the Sick," "The Nativity and Childhood of Christ," and "Country Life in Egypt and Palestine," all appeal strongly to the younger children.

Realizing the great need of a carefully selected list of pictures to illustrate the International Sunday School Lessons for 1909, we arranged for a selection that we think is unsurpassed for Baptist Sunday schools. This series of pictures consists of one hundred carefully selected subjects, reproduced from some of the world's famous paintings and from recent photographs taken in Bible lands. These pictures illustrate the character of thought of the lesson for each Sunday. They are printed on heavy enameled paper. They can be mounted in scrap books, in which a brief description can be written besides, or on the opposite page. This not only creates interest, but at the same time impresses home and clinches the idea we as teachers are trying to make upon the minds and hearts of our scholars. Price, 100 subjects, neatly boxed, with catalogue of subjects, 90 cents postpaid.

We supply scrap books for use in mounting the above pictures as follows:

Scrap Book No. 1. Size 7 x 8½ inches. Bound in board covers, contains 80 pages of good white paper; picture can be pasted in book and facts of the picture recorded on same page. Price, 10 cents; postpaid, 15 cents.

3. THE BEGINNERS' DEPARTMENT

For Children Three to Six Years

This is where the little folks make their start in the school. The A B C Game. Something new.

It seems strange that no one has thought of combining the alphabet and Bible facts in a game for children, yet such is the case. We are fortunate in having originated and copyrighted this idea, which is sure to become very popular.

There are three sets of alphabets in each pack. Each card bears a large letter of the alphabet, in colors; also a picture illustrating a Bible character or scene beginning with the letter of the alphabet appearing on the card. This game may be used in the Primary department, the Kindergarten, or the home.

The object of the game is to spell Bible words, such as "Moses," "David," "Paul," or "love," "God," "Jesus," "Heaven." The cards are to be divided among the children, and the one spelling the greatest number of words correctly is declared the winner. There are other ways of playing the game, all of which are interesting and instructive. A card giving complete instructions goes with each pack.

Seventy-eight cards to a set. Price, per set, boxed, 25 cents postpaid.

It was revised by an able committee, and we find it most clearly and forcibly defining our denominational doctrines. It utters no uncertain sound, and refers to Scripture to uphold every answer. The best catechism for denominational use.

Published also in German and Spanish.

Baptist Catechism. A brief instruction in the principles of the Christian religion. Benjamin Keach. Revised edition. Price, paper cover, 5 cents postpaid.

This catechism, drawn up on the plan of the Assembly's Shorter Catechism, and modified to express clearer views of the New Testament ordinances, has been in use for nearly two centuries in the Baptist families of Great Britain and the United States. The present edition is in large type, without references, for the use of the youngest children. Published in smaller type, and with the Bible references, for older students.

Hid in the Heart. Compiled by George E. Horr, D. D. 12mo. Fifty-two pages. With illuminated initial letters. Price, 25 cents net; postage, 5 cents.

This book contains selections from the Bible suitable for committal to memory in early life. They are such portions as the Twenty-third Psalm, the Beatitudes, the first part of John 14, and so forth. The thought is enforced in Doctor Horr's preface that these passages should be so inwrought into the individual as that they cannot possibly be obliterated.

This little booklet is in the question and answer form, and is suitable for the smallest scholars. It takes up the books in the Bible, their arrangement and so forth, and some of the fundamental questions of Christian doctrine. It is so simple in style that the very youngest can understand it.

Help for Children, and the Friends of Children. A plain and easy catechism, designed for the use of Sunday schools. Andrew Broaddus, D. D. Price, paper cover, 3 cents postpaid.

This is an excellent reader for Sunday schools; being selections from the Bible, in large type, setting forth Christian doctrine and human duties.

Easy Lessons for Beginners. Paper. 12mo. Twenty-four pages. Price, 5 cents postpaid.

These lessons are designed to precede the Sunday school Readers, and are exactly what their name indicates.

This is the very best kind of a lesson book for young classes in Sunday schools.

First Scripture Question Book. Illustrated. 18mo. One hundred and twenty-eight pages. Price, boards, 15 cents; $1.50 per dozen; paper, 10 cents; $1.00 per dozen, postpaid.

This work has been prepared with especial reference to the wants of the younger classes in Sunday schools, and for use in family instruction. It is arranged in a series of questions and answers, both expressed in few words, but perfectly clear and easy of comprehension by young children. The volume, though small, contains a distinct outline of the sacred Scriptures.

A First Book in Christian Doctrines. Rev. Joseph E. Sagebeer. 16mo. Forty-seven pages. Price, 10 cents postpaid.

The first issue made its appearance July 1, and at that time "The Youth's World" was made a boys' paper exclusively, instead of for boys and girls as formerly. A high standard has been set for The Girl's World, and every effort will be made to attain it. There will be stories by well-known writers, and departments covering all the interests of girls from athletics to fancy work. Particular attention will be given to matter of educational value, and arrangements are now being made for contributions by excellent writers covering historical subjects, travel, and nature study. No pains or expense will be spared to make the paper the best of its kind.

Goodwin Lewis, which was exhibited all through Europe, and finally purchased for $5,000 and presented to one of our English colleges. In the distance the sterile mountains of Moab glisten in the bright Eastern sunlight. An excellent reward. Every scholar should have one. 8. CLASS ORGANIZATION

BAPTIST BROTHERHOOD

The significance of the emblem adopted by the Baptist Brotherhood is as follows: The idea of the Maltese cross is the same as generally used as an emblem. The circle is an emblem of eternity and the triangle of the Trinity. The three in combination stand for the cardinal principles of the faith which the Brotherhood is designed to support and in which it has its union. 10. THE HOME DEPARTMENT

The object of the Home Department is to promote the study of the Bible in the home, in connection with the Sunday school, among those who for any reason do not attend its sessions. Many schools have found this department an invaluable aid, and the "shut-ins" themselves are cheered, helped, and kept in touch with the outside world. The expense of such a department is merely nominal, its influence is very wide-reaching. If your school is not already engaged in the good work, organize at once and reach all those who are unable to come to the Sunday school; have them study the lessons, send their contributions, and keep in touch with Sunday school work, although they cannot attend the sessions.

The Senior Quarterly, Home Department Edition, which is similar to our regular Senior Quarterly, enlarged however with features which thoroughly commend themselves to those enrolled in the Home Department. Price, single copy, 20 cents for one year; in quantities, 16 cents each for one year; 4 cents each for one quarter.

The Advanced Quarterly, Home Department Edition, meets the needs of the younger members of the Home Department. In placing your order, please be particular to mention "Home Department." Price, single copy, 10 cents for one year; in quantities, 7½ cents each for one year; 2 cents each for one quarter.

11. THE CRADLE ROLL DEPARTMENT

A note of introduction by Mrs. Lewis S. Somers, Primary Superintendent of Tioga Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

Every model Sunday school should have a well-organized Cradle Roll Department; the cradle roll membership is a necessary groundwork, and therein lies the foothold of parents and scholars. The cradle roll as a rule requires a superintendent to meet its demands. In a small school it may be under the supervision of a primary teacher. What are the duties of a cradle roll superintendent? To secure for the cradle roll all the babies of the church, of the congregation, of the neighborhood. To record the full name and birthday. To fill out and return to the parents a certificate of baby's membership in this department. To send a birthday card. To remember the baby by invitation on all entertainment occasions connected with the Primary Department grades. At the quarterly "mothers' meeting" to especially invite the baby; having a side room prepared for its care and reception, and suitable refreshments for its entertainment. A closet of toys is often part of the primary room or church parlor. At the age of three years to promote the baby to the little beginners' class, filling out a certificate of promotion for the child. The enrolment of a baby on the cradle roll is usually attended with some short exercise during the session of a primary or little beginners' class. The baby's name can be read and a short prayer offered in concert, followed by a welcome song. In some schools the larger brothers and sisters bring a collection for the cradle roll bank each Sunday. To this bank is also sent baby's birthday pennies. Many extra helps in the Cradle Roll Department depend on the limit of the treasury this department has to call upon. Shortly following baby's advent, a tiny plant bearing a note of welcome and congratulation, opens the way for a visit and an invitation to have baby become a member of the cradle roll. Many schools include the baby on the Christmas list with gifts of rubber balls, toy lambs, etc.

NOTE—If you are about to start a cradle roll send 10 cents for our sample package of necessary helps, or $1.00 for a complete Cradle Roll Outfit. This outfit includes the following: One flint cradle roll, sixty names, with metal binding top and bottom,

Cradle Roll Invitation

Dear Parents:—We are anxious to have your baby associated with our Sunday school by becoming a member of our

Cradle Roll

This department is for children too young to attend the primary school, but who in time will become regular members. The names of the little ones are the especial care of the superintendent, who keeps the records and sends to each child, when enrolled, a beautiful certificate of membership, also a token of remembrance on each birthday. May we not put your little one's name on our roll, and thus assure you and yours of an interest in our prayers? If you approve of the plan kindly fill out the application card and return. With best wishes for the little one,

I am yours,

PROGRESSIVE REWARDS

Two new series of pins to be given scholars, either for helping to increase the attendance, or for punctuality, or as a mark of merit

NUMBER I

Young Reaper Series

HOW TO USE THIS SERIES

THIS beautiful new series of pins, with its harmony of gold and colors, has a most appropriate design of sheaf and sickle. It is suggestive of the text, "Ripe for the harvest." The fields are as ripe for young reapers as for old. The smallest scholar can bring others. We suggest that this series be used for the younger grades of the school. In using this series first order enough of No. 0 for each scholar in the beginners', primary, and junior grades; in this way enrolling them in the band of "young reapers."

Following this, No. 1 is to be given to be worn in place of No. 0 when the child has brought one new scholar to the school.

No. 2 when the second new scholar is brought, and so on up to No. 6.

This plan can be varied by giving No. 2 for two, three, four, or any number of new scholars, and the following numbers accordingly.

Pin No. 1 is surrendered when No. 2 is given, and used over and over again; in the same manner all of the numbers are used, except the solid gold one, which is given to every scholar bringing in six new pupils. This idea is purely suggestive. Start the series with Nos. 0 and 1 and note the result; then you can decide as to the best method to adopt. Increase your attendance and collections fifty to one hundred per cent. by using this series.

NUMBER II

Light and Life Series

HOW TO USE THIS SERIES

THIS series of pins is the most elaborate in design and most attractive in coloring to be had for reward purposes. The wreath of gold forming the edge of the pin encircles a background in color, on which is emblazoned a Greek cross, also in color, bearing on its surface an enameled shield. In the center of this shield appears an open Bible, surmounted by a Greek lamp. No pin made so completely symbolizes the truths of the Christian faith as does this one. The appropriateness of its name, the "Light and Life Series," is evident. These pins can be had in seven different styles for increasing and maintaining attendance, by giving the pins for bringing new scholars or for regular and punctual attendance. It can also be worked similar to the Cross and Crown System. No. 0 to every scholar; No. 1 for regular attendance for two months; No. 2 for regular attendance for four months; No. 3 for regular attendance for six months; No. 4 for regular attendance for eight months; No. 5 for regular attendance for ten months; No. 6 for regular attendance for twelve months.

No. 1 pins, for the first two months' attendance, do not have to be ordered until a week or so before they are to be presented, when you will know very nearly how many will be required. As these are surrendered when No. 2 is given, they are used over again, and in the same way all the other numbers are used again, except the solid gold one, which is presented outright to the scholar who has attended promptly and regularly one year. If rewards for attendance are given, provision can be made for the vacation period.

The Baptism of Christ. Colored celluloid button. Price, 20 cents per dozen; $1.50 per hundred, postpaid.

This button is a reproduction of the famous original oil painting by E. Goodwin Lewis, which was exhibited all through Europe and finally purchased for $5,000 and presented to one of our English colleges. The aim of the artist has been to represent as literally as possible the historic fact of the baptism of Christ as narrated in the Gospels. The baptism takes place at one of the fords of the Jordan. In the distance the sterile mountains of Moab glisten in the bright Eastern sunlight. An excellent reward. Every scholar should have one.

Baptist Sunday School Buttons. Price, 20 cents per dozen; $1.50 per hundred, postpaid.

Black button, triangular design in white and blue with Baptist Sunday school in gilt lettering. Outside of triangle is black, representing the world in darkness without the light of the gospel. Inside the triangle of one is white with red cross, and the other is blue with white cross. These colors represent purity and fidelity, and the cross mercy and redemption. The buttons are beautiful and inexpensive—always clean and bright, never soil, tarnish, or look dull.

Gold and Silver Star System. This system for increasing attendance has proved to be very popular and has met with phenomenal success. It combines every valuable feature of all methods and eliminates practically every element of weakness. These stars are made from solid silver, solid silver gold-plated, and solid gold, and guaranteed to be exactly as represented. Price, solid silver, 20 cents each; solid silver gold-plated, 30 cents each; solid gold, 75 cents each, postpaid.

Reds and Blues Contest Buttons (Two Designs).

Style 1. Price, assorted, one-half each color, 2 cents each; $1.00 per hundred, postpaid.

STYLE 1

Style 2. Price, 20 cents per dozen; $1.50 per hundred, postpaid.

By making use of our Reds and Blues plans you can easily double your school membership in a month or six weeks. You can break up irregular attendance in a very short time. You can raise large sums of money for your needs. You can secure church attendance, bringing of lesson helps, bringing of collection, coming on time, etc. Each reds and blues plan requires dividing the school into two sections—reds and blues, and appointing captains, one or more, for each side, a social or other treat to be given at the close of the contest, when those on the winning side receive ice-cream and cake, and the losers crackers and cheese, or some other attraction to celebrate the close of the contest and the victory. Treat is to be paid for by the school. Complete instructions showing how to conduct a Red and Blue contest sent on application.

State plainly in your order which style you want.

5. BANNERS FOR CHURCH, CLASS, AND SOCIETIES

We use in the production of our banners the finest French merinos, or fine quality satin in all colors, but advise the brightest, such as scarlet, purple, blue, or white. We have heretofore used gros-grain silk, but now substitute a grade of satin of equal value. Our reason for the change is that we can obtain the satin in a greater variety of shades. We also use fine quality velvet, and can furnish banners in a good number of different shades, but not quite so many as in merino or satin.

In emblems for center of banner, we have Clasped Hands, Cherub, Passion Cross, and open Bible on A, B, and C banners. The Cross and Crown, only on Design D, is very elaborate, and we only use it with banners of that design. Christian Endeavor Monogram, or Epworth League Design, 50 cents extra on A, B, and C banners.

A wooden staff, six feet long, with wooden spear head, is included with each banner (gilt metal acorn or spear head for the top of staff, instead of wooden spear head, 50 cents additional).

Appropriate Mottoes:

No Cross, No Crown.
Banner Class.
Bible Class.
Infant Class.
Go in Peace.
Watch and Pray.
Open Thy Hand Wide Unto Thy Brother.
Suffer Little Children to Come Unto Me.

Be Thou Faithful unto Death.

The Famous Perry Pictures

Among the many educational helps supplied to the general public none have been more welcome than the Perry Pictures. They bring the paintings of the world's greatest masters within the reach of everybody. Through them the child's imagination is quickened and enlarged, and the adult's esthetic taste cultivated and satisfied. School-teachers and mothers could do nothing better than to see that the children under their care are generously supplied with the Perry Pictures. Probably more than one-half of the world's best paintings have been reproductions of the religious life. In fact, all the old masters have endeavored to interpret the sacred book in pictures—Raphael and his glorious Madonnas, Hofmann and the Christ Child, Da Vinci's Last Supper, and many others have been and always will be admired and adored by the people. Who can estimate the influence for good that has been occasioned by the paintings of the great artists? We are told that the soul of the child is most readily reached through the eye-gate—the memory retains a picture presented to the eye that would pass unheeded if presented through the ear. Make your teaching more vivid—present the gospel story and the truth of life by using illustrations. A choice selection of pictures especially bearing on the Sunday-school lesson and on the Old and New Testaments has been prepared. Send for a catalogue.

The Perry Pictures are printed in black, white, and sepia tones, and are half-tone reproductions from photographs or steel engravings. The pictures cover

There are about two thousand five hundred subjects, and new ones are being added from time to time.

Requisites for Sunday School Officers

1. FOR THE SECRETARY

CARD SYSTEM FOR SUNDAY SCHOOL RECORDS

With the introduction of business methods into the Sunday school, there came a demand for a system of keeping the records of attendance of the school in a more systematic and business-like way. To satisfy this demand, each and every publishing house placed upon the market class books and card system which they considered the acme of perfection.

Unfortunately, however, none of the systems offered to the secretary have relieved him of any of his work; on the other hand, some of the ways and means devised have increased his amount of labor, because of the system being too complicated or indefinite. Again, the objection to the great cost of introducing the system has entered into the argument against its adoption, and altogether the secretary and his assistants have been forced to prepare a plan of their own, causing them untold inconvenience and expense.

We have taken all of the above facts into consideration and have prepared what is considered to be one of the finest systems on the market to-day for keeping the record of attendance, the number on the roll, and the school at the highest point of punctuality and efficiency.

THE UP-TO-DATE CARD SYSTEM

simplifies the work of the overworked secretary, and with the least expenditure of energy secures the best results for the school, both from a point of time and cost. Our system also will relieve the difficulty usually encountered at the season of the year when rewards for perfect attendance are to be presented, because the puncture in the card made by the secretary shows the exact number of times the scholar has been absent.

No longer is it necessary for the secretary to depend upon incorrectly marked books for his records, for with the card system the teachers or scholars have nothing to do with the marking of the attendance. The teacher simply places the cards of the absent scholars in the pocket marked "absent," and the cards of the scholars in attendance in the pocket marked "present." The secretary or his assistants collect the envelopes and do the rest. There are no books to be marked or erased by the teacher or pupil. The teacher calls the roll, which is done by leafing the cards, and the secretaries punch the cards.

Four cards, one envelope, and a punch are required for the working of the system.

The cards are designated as follows:

Register card (white).

Attendance card (blue for teacher, red for scholar).

Visitor's card (chocolate).

Double pocket envelope (brown), and a nickel-plated punch.

The cards measure 3 x 5 inches, and are printed on both sides.

HOW TO WORK THE SYSTEM

When a new scholar comes into the school he is taken to the registrar, or secretary, who fills out one of the register cards and one of the attendance cards. The register card is placed in the alphabetical index list in the box; if desirable, another one can be filled out and placed in the class index list in the same box, which will hold both. The duplicate lists are kept for the purpose of accuracy and convenience in reference, etc.; the wisdom of this can readily be seen. The attendance card is taken, with the scholar, and handed to the teacher of the class to which the scholar has been assigned, which, of course, is to be regulated according to the age of the scholar. The teacher then places the card in the class envelope along with the other cards of the class.

The class envelopes are handed to the classes each Sunday before or during the opening exercises. Just before the teaching of the lesson the superintendent allows from three to five minutes for the teacher to call the roll, which is done by the teacher leafing off the cards. The cards of those who are present are put in the pocket of the envelope marked "present," and the cards of those who are absent are put in the pocket of the envelope marked "absent." The offering is then gathered and placed in a separate envelope (blue) and marked and placed alongside of the other envelope. The secretary or his assistants gather up the envelopes just before or when the classes go to the study of the lesson. The offering should not be put in the envelopes with the cards. It confuses the secretary and soils the cards. The secretary takes the class envelopes to his desk, punches the cards of those scholars who are absent, and immediately fills out absentee cards for all punched attendance cards. The absentee cards are then handed to the teachers of the respective classes. This is usually done before the school closes. The following Sunday the teacher or his scholar reports on the cards of the previous Sunday.

THE ADVANTAGE OF THE UP-TO-DATE CARD SYSTEM

FIRST. It secures accurate and permanent records for the school. When the scholar enters, the register card gathers all necessary information and is placed on file. The attendance card gathers the record from week to week. All information of value to the new scholar and school is noted on the back of his attendance card, such as new scholars introduced, honors received, etc. At the end of the year this information is transferred to the register card, where it becomes permanent, and is always easy of access. The old attendance card is handed back to the scholar or destroyed at the end of the year and a new one made.

SECOND. It increases attendance. It does this by keeping the scholar and the school in constant touch, thus keeping the average at the highest possible point. Scholars are followed so closely that they have no chance to grow careless or indifferent. If they are absent a Sunday the teacher or one of the scholars call before the next Sunday. This not only leads the scholar to return the next Sunday, but the returned report card also keeps the school informed of the whereabouts of its scholars.

THIRD. It gives the teachers and scholars something to do, and thus trains future workers for the church. The importance of this cannot be overestimated.

FOURTH. It develops the entire working force of the school. The system is so complete that the secretaries and assistants are trained in keeping records, while the teachers and scholars are trained to the habit of accuracy and promptness in making reports on matters assigned to them. Thus, by degrees, the school through its system is doing an invaluable service not only for the church, but for the scholars in their future life as well.

THE COST

Naturally, the first consideration ought to be the expense necessary to install such a system. How much of our old system can we use? And how does the price compare with the book system? How much will it cost? Such are the questions that are continually being asked.

☞ A Complete Index will be found at the back of this catalogue

FIRST. You can use the large record book if you so desire. SECOND. It is cheaper than the class book system, and does not exceed the price of class books, as will be seen from the following list.

For an average school of two hundred members the first cost and requisites will be as follows:

Two hundred Register Cards. Price, 70 cents.

Two hundred (red) Scholar's Attendance Cards. Price, $1.00.

Twenty (blue) Teacher's Attendance Cards. Price, 10 cents.

Twenty (chocolate) Visitor's Cards. Price, 10 cents.

One hundred (yellow) Absentee Cards. Price, 25 cents.

Two dozen (white) Linen Envelopes. Price, 50 cents.

Two dozen (brown) Paper Envelopes. We recommend these to wear like leather. Price, 70 cents.

One Punch (nickel plated). Price, 75 cents. We have cheaper ones.

One ("Weiss") Wooden Box. Outfit complete with lid and alphabetical index. Price, 75 cents.

The entire cost for the first year $4.35 postpaid. Each year following the expense will be about one-half. Such articles as punch, register cards, and box for holding register cards last for an indefinite time, and so will not have to be replaced. The only expense each year will be the attendance cards, which are so very low in price that all schools can have the up-to-date system.

WHY ADOPT THE UP-TO-DATE SYSTEM?

Because: FIRST. It secures and keeps for ready use definite information and accurate records of each scholar and teacher.

SECOND. It makes it impossible for a scholar or teacher to drift from the school without being visited.

THIRD. It enables the officer to help the teacher hold the class.

FOURTH. It is the only system that gives the scholar something to do.

FIFTH. It increases the average attendance by keeping the scholars present. In some cases the attendance has been brought from sixty to ninety per cent.

SIXTH. It increases the school offering by increasing the average attendance. One school's offering was nearly doubled.

SEVENTH. It impresses the scholar with the fact that the church attends to business in a business way.

EIGHTH. It develops and trains the church of the future by teaching the scholar the importance and methods of church visiting.

NINTH. It enables the secretary to report to the superintendent, and the superintendent to the pastor, each week, homes in which there is sickness or trouble; also the names and addresses of families that have moved.

TENTH. It is approved and recommended by all aggressive Bible-school workers.

Send five cents for sample set of cards.

Money Collection Devices

In this section we offer only the most attractive devices—those that will make the giving of money an interesting and pleasant matter. The oddity or uniqueness of the various devices here described will appeal to the superintendent, teacher, and scholar.

Birthday, Missionary, Thanksgiving, Free Will, Easter, and Christmas Offering Envelopes. White drug envelopes, open end, with the phrases "Birthday Offering," "Missionary Offering," "Thanksgiving Offering," "Free Will Offering," "Easter Offering," "Christmas Offering," and "Advent Offering" very neatly printed on face of envelopes. Prices, postpaid, one hundred, 30 cents; five hundred and over, 25 cents per hundred; one thousand, $2.25. No less than one hundred envelopes of a kind sold.

A Glass Birthday Bank. Nickel plated. Made from highly polished aluminum plates, glass globe, and oxidized rods and nickel-plated balls. To open bank unscrew one of the bottom balls marked with a * and drawing out the rod releases the globe. No danger of breaking. Size of bank, 5 inches square. Price, $1.00; postage, 35 cents.

Glass Birthday Bank. Same as cut shown above, with wooden top and bottom instead of nickel plate. Price, 75 cents, not postpaid.

Reds and Blues Contest Offering Pyramids. A plan that is attractive and interesting; it keeps each side guessing as to what the other side is doing. The boxes to hold the offerings are made of both red and blue cardboard. Divide the members who are to collect or solicit offerings into two parts, either the boys against the girls, or several classes against each other, or any other way, so you will have one half trying to do better than the other half. Considerable interest can be added to the plan by having each solicitor keep tally by marking the figures on the box (the boxes are arranged for this purpose), and announce each Sunday the amount each side has collected since the previous Sunday. Of course it is necessary to have the contest start and end within a given period, say a month or two. At the end of this time the winning side should be announced. We would also recommend that each one collecting wear a contest button, red or blue, showing which side

5. Restored Jewish Community in Palestine: 538–167 B. C. The Maccabean Kingdom: 167–63 B. C. Price, $2.00 net.

In the first map a vivid impression is given of the smallness of the Judean community and its growth as a result of the work of Nehemiah. The new cities which appear in the biblical narrative are also identified. The map of the Maccabean Kingdom reveals the rapid expansion of the little Judean state into an empire almost as large as that of David, and reveals the genesis of those dreams of world-wide conquest that filled the minds of the Jews to whom Jesus spoke.

6. Herod's Kingdom: 40–4 B. C. Palestine in the Time of Jesus: 4 B. C.–30 A. D. Price, $2.00 net.

The first indicates the political status of Palestine at the birth of Christ. The two maps, placed side by side on the same sheet, portray in detail the historical geography of Palestine during New Testament times. There is also a plan of Jerusalem during the Roman period, based on recent excavations and the testimony of biblical and Jewish authorities. A plan of Herod's temple on the same sheet completes the equipment for the intelligent study of the gospel narratives.

7. St. Paul's Journeys and the Early Christian Church: 40–100 A. D. Price, $2.00 net.

The provinces of Asia and of the Grecian peninsula, as well as Italy and Africa, are shown in their proper relations. Each of Paul's journeys is indicated and distinguished from the others by different type of line.

8. Biblical and Contemporary Chronology. Price, $2.00 net.

The chronological data required by the student, with the names and duration of the reigns of contemporary kings, and the important events, are graphically presented so that the general course of the history can be followed at a glance.

The above series inaugurates a new epoch in the history of biblical wall maps, and meets a need that has long been recognized by intelligent Bible students. Its appearance is especially opportune at this time when the vital importance of the historical method of studying is being so widely emphasized. It furnishes in clear, attractive form the information which is absolutely indispensable for such study.

Stout's Map of Palestine. Just the thing for the new "Adult Bible Class." It shows the journeys of Jesus, chronologically arranged by arrowed lines. All other maps show WHERE; this one shows WHERE AND WHAT. That is, as you look it over it talks to you, not through your ears, but eyes, and it says, at Dothan: "Here Joseph was thrown into the pit and sold by his brethren." At Lehi: "Here Samson slew one thousand men with the jaw-bone of an ass." In this most interesting way the map shows where about fifty of the most interesting Bible incidents took place. There is nothing else like it.

1. Size, 22 x 34 inches. Printed on fine, tough bond paper, folded and enclosed in heavy manila, open end, patent fastening envelope. Price, 50 cents net, postpaid.

2. Size, 22 x 34 inches. Printed on fine cloth-backed map paper, strong and durable, mounted on wooden rollers. Price, $1.00 net, postpaid.

Both maps are done in six colors.

Distances from Jerusalem are indicated by radial circles, which will enable the student to approximately estimate the number of miles between given points.

Clear, bold outlines have been sought after. Names of countries and places are in as large type as the size of sheet would permit.

Many of the old songs are enshrined in memory for their beauty and character, yet while Christian people sing there will be a demand for new songs. Praise and Service has been prepared especially to meet the increasing demand for a broader and more varied type of music, created by the present-day Sunday school workers, and is replete with inspiring and devotional songs of a worshipful and dignfied character.

Praise and Service contains a goodly supply of "Battle" songs, "Harvest" songs, "Missionary" songs, "Bible" songs, and songs of "Courage" and "Help," to which have been added a number of "Gospel Solos," everywhere recognized as a power for good in the Sunday school, together with a few selections for the Primary and Intermediate Departments.

Praise and Service consists largely of new hymns and music, and is not burdened with from ten to fifty pages of songs to be found in almost every book issued, for which the people must pay over and over again because they are "popular," but is filled with new and fresh compositions, many of which we believe, will become popular favorites, supplemented by a selection of the choicest church hymns that are always serviceable and useful, making altogether a collection of Sunday school songs excelled by none.

STEREOPTICONS AND SLIDES

We announce that we have arranged with UNDERWOOD & UNDERWOOD, "The Greatest Photographers in the World," whose name is familiar in every household as publishers of Stereoscopic Photographs and Magazine Illustrators, whereby we become their agents and shall be known as depository No. 5. They are now organizing a world-wide movement to promote visual instruction in religious education by means of the stereopticon. Through their depositories, which will be established at convenient points, they will place within the reach of every church and Sunday school in the English-speaking world

1. Stereopticons. Improved patterns, best materials, most adjustable, polished like a watch.

2. Stereopticon Slides for Sale. Instead of ordering from titles in a catalogue, photographs will be submitted from which slides desired for purchase can be selected and ordered. How to Obtain a Stereopticon Without Money. The stereopticon pays for itself and pays its way. Our slides are the product of the best efforts of the camera and the color artist. The lectures are written by a traveler, scholar, and expert. Let the minister or other public speaker give one of these lectures. Let tickets be sold in advance, the proceeds to be applied to the purchase of a stereopticon for regular use. For this occasion, if a stereopticon is ordered, we will furnish the slides and lecture without cost.

Lecture Sets for Rent. Our slides for rental are arranged in sets, accompanied by lectures prepared by J. L. Leeper, D. D., who is widely known as a traveler, writer, scholar, and especially proficient in the art of illustrated discourse. The lectures are prepared for use in the Sunday evening service, Y. M. C. A. courses, Sunday school, and other religious meetings.

These descriptive and suggestive lectures make easy and practical the otherwise laborious preparation and extensive research necessarily involved in successful illustrated discourse. For the lecture sets now ready send for bulletin. Many other lectures in preparation.

He discusses in the treatment of public worship "The Congregation," "The Service," "Responses," "Prayer," "Reading of the Scriptures," "Music," "The Sunday Evening Service," and the "Ordinances" and "Prayer Meeting." The discussion of these several topics is discriminating, conservative, and wise, and given in a style that makes the book as bright and readable as any story. For Communion

In this section will be found the old style services as well as the newer individual style of service.

1. THE TWENTIETH CENTURY INDIVIDUAL COMMUNION SERVICE

After careful comparison we can truthfully affirm that the Twentieth Century Individual Communion Service is for many reasons superior to all others. It is moderate in price, as the trays are made of aluminum, equal in appearance to silver, and better in many respects, being easily kept clean, not apt to tarnish, no plating to wear off, and very light to handle.

As the service appears on the Communion Table, showing Base, three Trays, and Cover. The cover set back, showing glasses

The Glasses are extra quality, made to order, are easy to keep clean, and do not easily break. The base of the glass is concave, to prevent sediment from collecting.

Full size of the glass

The Trays contain thirty, thirty-five, or forty glasses each. One to four trays can be placed upon one base. Over the top tray only is a cover needed, as each tray becomes a cover for the one beneath. It will be seen that the base and cover are not absolutely necessary, but will be found to add very much to the appearance. Churches wishing to save expense can use this tray without base or cover.

The Filler. All the glasses in one tray can be filled in little more than a minute with the patent filler, which does not appear on the communion table, as the glasses should all be filled before the service.

No. 1 Holder

1. Holder. Iron of very neat design, to hold two glasses. Price, each, 7 cents; for three glasses, each, 8¾ cents.

2. Holder. Movable, for three glasses. Bright aluminum metal, looks like silver. Price, each, 12¾ cents.

The holders are to go on the pews to receive the empty glasses. Of the aluminum holder No. 2, the socket only remains on the pews during the month and can be used for the church calendar or collection envelope.

No. 2 Holder

3. Holder. Polished oak, for three glasses. Price, each, 8¾ cents.

Church Furnishings

1. CHURCH MUSIC BOOKS

FOR DEVOTIONAL SERVICES

Praise and Service. A new sacred song book for church worship. Charles H. Gabriel, author of "The Glory Song." Price, decorated cloth cover, each, 30 cents postpaid; $25.00 per hundred. Express or freight extra.

Many of the old songs are enshrined in memory for their beauty and character, yet while Christian people sing there will be a demand for new songs. "Praise and Service" has been prepared especially to meet the increasing demand for a broader and more varied type of music, created by the present-day Sunday school workers. It is devotional, worshipful, and dignified.

"Praise and Service" contains a goodly supply of "Battle" songs, "Harvest" songs, "Missionary" songs, "Bible" songs, and songs of "Courage" and "Help," to which have been added a number of "Gospel Solos," everywhere recognized as a power for good in the Sunday school, together with a few selections for the Primary and Intermediate Departments.

"Praise and Service" consists largely of new hymns and music, and is not burdened with from ten to fifty pages of songs to be found in almost every book issued, for which the people must pay over and over again because they are "popular," but is filled with new and fresh compositions, many of which, we believe, will become popular favorites, supplemented by a selection of the choicest church hymns that are always serviceable and useful, making altogether a collection of Sunday school songs excelled by none.

For a complete list of Gospel Song Books, see page 72.

"This hymn book is the outcome of an extended and successful experiment in congregational singing, nearly all the pieces which it contains having been tested by actual use. It claims to be a selection rather than a collection. But though small and compact, it has undertaken to present the best and most widely accepted standard hymns and tunes in use in all our churches, combining with these an ample selection of the lively and stirring melodies known as gospel songs. This combination has been found to work so well in actual experience by meeting the demand of the most critical as well as the most popular taste, that our book is sent forth with strong confidence that it will meet a real need."—The Preface.

Art Bibles and Red Letter Bibles

There are a variety of beautifully illustrated Bibles now published. We have chosen the best editions for this department. We also offer a carefully selected list of numbers in the red letter editions. All these numbers are specially suitable for gift purposes.

ART BIBLES

OXFORD PICTORIAL PALESTINE BIBLE

The originators of this new Pictorial Bible hope they may claim to fill a want. There are many illustrated Bibles. Some contain copies from the old masters, and grand as these pictures are in color and artistic skill, no one would venture to say they are correct, either as to place or costume. Other editions contain modern pictures drawn by very capable artists unfamiliar with the East. In this volume neither artist has made any attempt to illustrate by picture the divine Christ, but to depict existing customs which throw light on Bible statements. In this Bible, the pictures, whatever merit or demerit they may have, are at least true. The following contain thirty-two chromographs. Beautifully colored illustrations.

American Standard Revised Bibles

The American Standard Bible is a new translation of the Bible in the light of twentieth century scholarship and knowledge, using the priceless manuscripts and other materials which have been discovered in the last three hundred years. It represents thirty years of devout study, consideration, and preparation by a committee of the most eminent American biblical scholars of all evangelical denominations. This Bible was prepared because in the older versions there are admitted inaccuracies in translation, obscurities due to words and phrases which are no longer in common use, and many errors in the ancient text followed by the old translators. We describe in this department a selected list of Bibles and Testaments of this modern scholarly revision of the Scriptures, including text, reference, teachers', and pulpit editions, as well as Testaments.

Various Editions and Texts of the English Bible and Testament for Students

When the Bible was first translated into English there were several translators, such as Cranmer, Tyndale, Coverdale, etc. Later came the King James version, which has held almost undisputed sway, as the final English text of the Scriptures, for three hundred years. In the past decade or so, however, a number of new versions have made their appearance. We name them below, together with some editions of the Scriptures with notes and bound up in forms quite different from the usual one-volume leather-bound editions commonly used.

For editions of the American Standard Revision, see pages 109–111.

ANNOTATED PARAGRAPH BIBLE

Bible and Commentary combined. 8vo, one thousand four hundred and ninety-eight pages. Full Sheep. Price, $5.00 net, expressage extra. Gives in a condensed, but at the same time convenient and popular form, the substance of what the learning and piety of successive ages have contributed to the elucidation of the word of God. An edition of this Bible has been prepared by the Religious Tract Society of London, and is sold in the American market by the American Baptist Publication Society.

BIBLE UNION NEW TESTAMENT

(Edition with "Baptize" or edition with "Immerse.") Price, cloth, 30 cents net; postage, cents; Morocco, 75 cents net; postage, 7 cents.

For correctness of rendering and idiomatic English this stands at the very head of New Testament versions. Those who know regard it as unqualifiedly superior to any other version of the New Testament. It is based upon the old Bible Union version with such aid as the Canterbury revision would furnish. It is, however, at the same time, an independent translation from the original Greek. The names of Drs. Broadus, Hovey, and Weston are a sufficient guarantee as to its character.

THE TEMPLE BIBLE

Complete in twenty-five volumes. Price, cloth, 35 cents net, per volume; leather, 55 cents net, per volume.

Postage, 3 cents per volume additional.

This readable pocket edition presents in the modern form of literature the authorized King James version, presenting prose as prose, verse as verse.

THE INTRODUCTION, which accompanies each volume, deals with the authorship, historical characteristics, scope, and style of the book. These introductions are written by men whom every Bible reader can trust because of their critical knowledge of the Bible, and their clearness and saneness of judgment.

"A very distinct improvement over the German edition. The book's compactness and small size make it easy to carry in the coat pocket, and its clean, beautiful type make it a delight to the eye. Doctor Nestle is an authority in textual criticism, and he has here prepared a very valuable book, a text, and an apparatus accompanying, that will in large measure take the place for general purposes of the bulky and more costly works. Every variant reading is noted and the authority on all sides given. It is in line with other Resultant Greek Testaments, but goes farther and supplies much additional help." —Prof. J. M. Stifler, of Crozer Theological Seminary.

THE PHŒNIX SERIES

The Phœnix Series was begun some years since. It is made up of books which, for the most part, have had a sufficient sale to enable us to reduce their price from 50 cents or $1.00 to 25 cents net per copy. From time to time we have enlarged the series. We now add a number of books hitherto sold at much larger prices. The entire series will be found most valuable and interesting. At 25 cents per copy it is possible for any one to supply themselves with good literature at a trifling expense. Many of the volumes are suitable for text-books in Bible-class work. We know of no series of low-priced books better for colportage sale. Cloth, 16mo. Price, per copy, 25 cents net; average postage, 5 cents per copy.

Literature for Youth

The wise choice of books is a matter of supreme importance to the careful mother and father who recognize the formative and molding influence of reading on character. This, one of the largest departments in our catalogue, is the result of careful thought and expert advice in selecting the best from the great mass of books for children of all ages poured forth by the publishers' presses. The old favorites as well as the new arrivals in the children's book world will be found here. In the sections devoted to books for boys and books for girls we have listed those books which are distinctively for one class or the other. We call your particular attention to the section of books for little people and their mothers. The classifications in this department will be of great assistance to those selecting gifts for the young, and to committees who have in charge the purchase of books for libraries. Such committees should also consult our SERIES OF BOOKS AT SPECIAL PRICES, pages 122 to 136, and also the department devoted to SUNDAY SCHOOL LIBRARIES. The following sections will be found in this department:

Since the time of "Little Women" no juvenile heroine has been so popular as the "Little Colonel," whom Mrs. Johnston has made the central figure of the "Little Colonel" stories. The volumes are as follows:

Little Colonel at Boarding School, The.
Little Colonel, Maid of Honor, The.
Little Colonel's Christmas Vacation, The.

They built wigwams and made camps; they went hunting and fought fierce battles on the war-trail. Incidentally they acquired much useful knowledge of Indians and of out-of-door life; and in their efforts to emulate the Indian traits, they grew stronger in body and contemptuous of childish fears and weaknesses.

Libraries for the Church and Sunday School

When the funds are limited and the desire is to secure the largest number of books for a comparatively small amount of money nothing can be found to equal these sets.

THE SENIOR DEPARTMENT

A NEW LIBRARY

The Publication Society has led all other Sunday school publishing houses in the making of carefully selected Sunday school libraries. It has made a specialty of gathering together some of the best volumes of other publishers, together with some of the most interesting of its own issues into "ready-made" libraries of from fifty to sixty volumes. These sets of carefully chosen books are bound in uniform cloth binding, which is durable and attractive. Put up in a wooden case with catalogues, they are ready for immediate use.

The Mature Man's Difficulties With His Bible. 12mo, 200 pp. Price, 75 cents net, postpaid.

Some years ago Doctor Faunce wrote a book, entitled "A Young Man's Difficulties with His Bible." It has helped many a young man assailed by doubts to a firmer and more intelligent hold upon the sacred book. Now, with the ripened experience which comes with added years, Doctor Faunce has done a similar work. His young man has become a mature man, and in these modern days difficulties have arisen other than those he knew in his earlier life. Doctor Faunce has met questions in a most admirable way in his new book.

Ferris, George Hooper, D. D.

The Formation of the New Testament. 16mo. Price, 90 cents net, postpaid.

Doctor Ferris tells us in his preface that this work is the result of prolonged investigation and study. The result of all this long and careful research differs materially from the views which are currently held.

This book embodies the fruit of the author's most careful and continuous study. It was his ardent hope that before his death he might complete it. He very nearly did so, and the portion remaining in an unfinished condition was so far advanced that his colleague, Professor Vedder, was able to prepare it for the press. It is an attempt to disclose to us our limitations in apprehending the various doctrines of the Christian Church.

Doctor Strong is an expert in framing definitions. This book is largely made up of these, in the making of which Doctor Strong has spent his life. They constitute the large print portions of the complete work, and so, without extract or comment from others, the book stands in a peculiar sense Doctor Strong's own.
Systematic Theology. Three volumes. Price, per volume, $2.50 net, postpaid.
For a score of years or more the "Systematic Theology" has held a unique place in the realm of sacred scholarship. It has passed through seven editions, and is still called for. In the progress of his own thought, however, and in the modification of some of his opinions, Doctor Strong has felt constrained to revise and enlarge this great work. The plan is to issue it in three volumes, with the thought possibly, if it shall not prove impracticable, to gather these ultimately into one. The general plan of the former work has been followed. The volume on the nature and being of God is the first of the series. This is followed by the "Doctrine of Man" and the "Doctrine of Salvation." Doctor Strong's statement of the proposition to be elucidated has been put in large type, and his comments thereon, as well as citations to illustrate it, in very much smaller type. It is perhaps doing the former no injustice to say that in this latter portion the chief value of the work obtains. From every source Doctor Strong has collated that which will throw light upon his thought, and men who had not dreamed of such a use have been constrained to render him service. The work is really a theological encyclopedia, and in this revised and enlarged form must dominate the theological world for years to come.

The Morning Hour of American Baptist Missions. 12mo, 278 pp. Price, $1.25 net, postpaid.

Minutes and reports, and private communications have been ransacked by the author in order to get at the exact status of things prefacing organized effort in missionary lines.

Vedder, Prof. Henry C.

Christian Epoch-Makers. 12mo, 368 pp. Price, $1.20 net, postpaid.

In the eighteen chapters of this book Professor Vedder has given a graphic account of the great leaders of the missionary epochs of the Christian Church.

A Short History of the Baptists. New illustrated edition. Price, $1.50 net, postpaid.

This short history contains all that is essential in Baptist history. Beginning with the founding of Christianity, it traces its development and the sects that sprang up in its pathway, its decline and reformation, and the appearance and enlargement of our own denomination.

Our New Testament: How Did We Get It? 16mo. Price, probably $1.00.

The underlying thought of the book is this, that in the formal sense of the term there was no such thing as a closed canon. In the course of time, however, the subconsciousness of the church or churches, rather than hierarchical authority, decided on certain books and rejected others, and so we have our New Testament. Whether this conclusion shall be reached or not by the reader will depend very largely on his point of view.

Worrell, A. S., A. M.

Worrell's Translation of the New Testament. Price, cloth, $1.25 net, postpaid; grain Morocco, $2.00 net, postpaid.

Designed to aid the earnest reader in obtaining a clear understanding of the doctrines, ordinances, and primitive assemblies, as revealed in the Scriptures. With numerous suggestions as to how the reader may utilize the wonderful possibilities set forth in the Word.

Christmas Wrappings

"Gone are the days when Christmas presents could be wrapped up in brown paper and prosaically tied with a bit of common twine. We have changed all that. And we have changed it for the better, although it is but rarely that the present matter-of-fact age can improve upon the ancient and honorable Yuletide observances handed down from the fathers. Nowadays the wrapping of a gift is a science. There are so many little inventions that can add to its whimsicality, its sentiment, or its plain, unadulterated Christmas spirit. There are effective wreathed labels, Santa Claus' seals, holly boxes, holly and Christmas bell labels, ribbons, and twines of all shades." Is made of the very best materials throughout—14-karat solid gold pen, best iridium points, Para hard-rubber barrel, etc. Every part is guaranteed for ten years' service.

When filling the old-style pen, you must (a) find the filler, (b) unscrew the pen, (c) fill the filler, (d) put ink in barrel, (e) again fill the filler, and (f) put ink in barrel, (gh) usually repeat both operations for the third time, (i) remove the air-bubbles, (j) screw on the pen, (k) wipe off the ink at the joint. If you have not overflowed the pen, and got ink on your fingers, desk, floor, or clothes, you are fortunate. You will have no such trouble with this pen.

CHANGE OF PRICE WITHOUT NOTICE

On account of the fluctuation of the markets in the cost of materials of all sorts, it sometimes becomes necessary to advance prices. This does not often happen, but when it is necessary to do so we wish our customers to understand that we are not increasing our charges to them arbitrarily.

We advise all to Insure their Packages.

Until further notice we will Insure mail or express packages, if we are so instructed, at the rate of 5 cents for each package valued at $5.00 or under; 10 cents for each package valued at between $5.00 and $10.00, etc.; that is, 5 cents for each $5.00 or fraction thereof in value. In case of loss, we will duplicate the Insured Package, or refund money, upon notification. If you want your package insured — that is, if you want us to assume all the risk of possible loss in transportation—be sure to write the word "Insure" at bottom of order, and inclose Insurance Fee in addition to postpaid price of goods.

Goods sent by Express or Freight, delivery is guaranteed.

We try to avoid errors. If anything is found wrong, please let us know at once.
